

Press Release
February 25
10

U.S. Embassy sponsors multi-ethnic panel to discuss “Unity in Diversity” in remembrance of Martin Luther King

The Public Affairs Section of the Embassy of the United States in Bolivia is sponsoring a public dialogue meeting featuring a multi-ethnic panel that will discuss the topic of “Unity in Diversity”. The discussion, to be held in remembrance of Martin Luther King on February 26 at the Municipal Theater of El Alto, will focus on the complex issues that diverse social groups are currently facing in Bolivia.

This U.S. Embassy-sponsored event will be co-hosted by several civil society organizations and the municipal government of El Alto. The U.S. Embassy’s Cultural Attaché, Rolf Olson, will open the dialogue with a presentation on Martin Luther King’s philosophy. The multi-ethnic panel comprises outstanding public figures representing Bolivia’s major ethnic groups: Aymara, Quechua, Guarani, Amazon, African-Bolivian, and Mestizo.